Camera Box professional photography studio specializes in portraits that capture the events and phases of life that every family treasures. From individual portraits for personal or business use, family groups, children and high school senior portraits to pets and wedding photography, we can accommodate every situation.

Established in 1972, Camera Box is currently owned by Geoff and Tammy Shearer. The Shearers are proud to be second generation proprietors of the family business which has recorded thousands of special moments for families across Central Pennsylvania for more than four decades. Thank you for your continued patronage!

Ordering - You will view your images electronically immediately after your session. You should choose your pose(s) at this time to ensure timely delivery of your image. Standard delivery is approximately 1 week. Rush service available.

Payment is requested at the time of your sitting unless your account has been pre-approved for billing. We accept cash, checks and all major credit cards.

Retouching is included for all final images that you purchase. Facial blemishes, shine and lines will be softened, and glare from glasses will be removed at no additional charge. Custom Retouching is available for an extra charge. Fees for custom retouching range from $15 - $25 per pose and may extend delivery time of your order.

Business Photography and Portrait Publicity Sittings

The sitting fee covers the cost of the photography session, the photographer's skill and studio time.

Standard Sitting.....$45

Our standard publicity sitting offers you a choice of approximately 8 to 10 head and shoulder poses from one background.

Custom Sitting.....$65

In addition to head and shoulder poses, you may also choose to add ¾ to full length poses to your sitting. Specialized lighting and varied backgrounds may also be a part of this session. You will choose from approximately 16 - 20 previews.

Group Sitting.....$65

This session accommodates groups of two or more individuals. All images are captured in the studio on one background.

On-Location Sitting.....$150

The Camera Box photographers do extensive work out of the studio at various locations throughout the region. We charge $150 for the initial session which extends up to one hour of photographic time including set-up. Additional hours are charged at $75 / hour.
